Do you know Floorball?

Have you heard of floorball? If not, then this is your chance to find out! Here is all about the rules, the things you need and where to learn it.

The old name of floorball

The former name of Floorball is Unihockey. Today, we cannot call it that, because the name Unihockey is used for something different.

You need

You need a field with gangs (German: Spielfeld mit Banden), floorball scrappers, two floorball gates, floorball balls, and two teams. To one team belongs fielders and a goalie. Of course there is a referee for a match, too. You can also play without a goalie when the goals are smaller.

Bulie

<https://unserhavelland.de/2024/01/30/1-falkenseer-floorball-turnier-judoschule-falkensee-startet-neue-turnierserie-im-floorball/>

Floorball game

The start is in the middle. It is called Bulie. In the Bulie, two players from the different teams face each other. If the field is small, 28 x 20 meters, there are 3 outfielders still on the field. On a large field, 40 x 20 meters, there are 4 outfielders on the field. At the start, the players compete for the ball at the Bulie by trying to hit it with a scraper. The team with the most goals wins.

Prime rules

1. The "Kelle" should only reach the knee during the game.
2. Harsh body contact is not allowed, but a lighter body contact during the fight for the ball is allowed.
3. Players may be changed at any time and without limit.

If you break the rules, there may be penalties.

What is Rugby?

Introduction

Have you ever wondered how to play rugby?

Well, I am going to tell you all about it: the rules, how to score, a little bit of Rugby history and what the Six Nations is.

Haka dance

The All Blacks' use of haka has become the most widely known, but several other New Zealand sports teams now perform haka before commencing a game. in the World Cup in 2011, flashmob haka became a popular way of expressing support for the All Blacks. Some Māori leaders thought it was "inappropriate" and a "bastardisation" of haka.

Rugby rules in short

Rugby is played on a field between two teams with 15 players each. The team with the ball have to attempt to move the ball up the field towards the goal, while the other team tries to stop them by tackling. The team in possession of the ball must never pass the ball forwards.

www.nytimes.com

How to score

There are four main ways to score points in the game of rugby.

Way #1: Try - 5 points

A try is scored when the ball is grounded over the opponents' goal-line in the in-goal area.

Way #2: Penalty - 3 points

When awarded a penalty after an infringement by the opposition, a team may choose to kick at goal.

Way #3: Conversion - 2 points

After scoring a try, that team can attempt to add two further points by kicking the ball over the crossbar and between the posts from a place in line with where the try was scored.

Way #4: Drop goal - 3 points

A drop goal is scored when a player kicks for goal in open play by dropping the ball onto the ground and kicking it on the half-volley.

Rugby History

Legends say that rugby was invented in 1823 during a Football match. A young man named William Webb Ellis took the ball in his hands and ran towards the opponents side. Today Rugby is one of the most popular sports in the world.

What is the Six Nations?

Patriarch's Ponds

WHY DID I CHOOSE THIS LOCATION?

I was born and lived in Moscow until I was 11 years old. When I had holidays or weekends, I really liked to walk there with my parents. What I liked most was spending time there in the summer. As I already wrote about this historical place, there are many monuments on this location. For example, one of these monuments is dedicated to Ivan Andreevich Krylov. He is a Russian fabulist. It was interesting for me to walk there and read the monuments on which fables and biographies of writers were written.

WHAT IS THIS?

Patriarch's Ponds is a historical, romantic, amazing and literary place. In addition to Bulgakov's well-known work "The Master and Margarita", part of the action in which took place in the "scenery" of the Patriarchs, many have written about this place.

Patriarch's Ponds is an area with an amazing history. Over the course of five centuries, this place has transformed from a swamp into a center of attraction for Moscow bohemia, became a fashionable park for walks, and even acquired a slightly mystical character thanks to the novel "The Master and Margarita."

ADDRESS

Patriarch's Ponds is the general name of an area located in the Presnensky district of the Central Administrative Okrug of Moscow, which includes a pond, a square and a microdistrict.*

*Microdistrict= Kleiner Bezirk
